RE: Thunderfest

Dear Craig,

I wanted to take a moment to drop you guys a line and let you know how much your appearance at Thunderfest was appreciated. Flying you halfway across the country to appear at the event was the best decision we made on this festival.

Out all the high quality acts we had at Thunderfest, I would have to say One More Mile was definitely the crowd favorite! I am so glad I dropped into Lou's on Pier 37 when I was in San Francisco back in January. After just 30 minutes of listening to you guys, I knew that One More Mile was a must have at Thunderfest. Rarely do I come across a band of musicians as accomplished and talented as all of you are, and as down to earth and friendly as we found you to be. It was a pleasure to host you for the festival, you guys are a real class act.

I predict great things in the future for One More Mile, and would not hesitate to recommend your act to anyone interested in booking a hot blues band. Please feel free to list us as a reference if you need a recommendation on a future booking.

I will be in touch soon, as we are already making plans for Thunderfest 2004, and One More Mile is definitely on the bill.
